

March on Washington, DC

August 13, 2005

9:00 AM at Lafayette Park (behind the White House)

Sponsored by Family Members & Friends of People Incarcerated (FMI)

"We must convince our leaders to stop relying on incarceration. Our youth need education, and our communities need jobs, not prisons." — Roberta Franklin, Director, FMI

Your Community Organizer is:

www.JourneyForJustice.org

March on Washington, DC

August 13, 2005

9:00 AM at Lafayette Park (behind the White House)

Sponsored by Family Members & Friends of People Incarcerated (FMI)

"We must convince our leaders to stop relying on incarceration. Our youth need education, and our communities need jobs, not prisons." — Roberta Franklin, Director, FMI

Your Community Organizer is:

www.JourneyForJustice.org

March on Washington, DC

August 13, 2005

9:00 AM at Lafayette Park (behind the White House)

Sponsored by Family Members & Friends of People Incarcerated (FMI)

"We must convince our leaders to stop relying on incarceration. Our youth need education, and our communities need jobs, not prisons." — Roberta Franklin, Director, FMI

Your Community Organizer is:

www.JourneyForJustice.org

March on Washington, DC

August 13, 2005

9:00 AM at Lafayette Park (behind the White House)

Sponsored by Family Members & Friends of People Incarcerated (FMI)

"We must convince our leaders to stop relying on incarceration. Our youth need education, and our communities need jobs, not prisons." — Roberta Franklin, Director, FMI

Your Community Organizer is:

www.JourneyForJustice.org