

Dear Friends:

On August 13, 2005 in Washington DC, from 9:00 AM to 2:00 PM in Lafayette Park across from the White House, grassroots organizers will gather in historic numbers to protest the United State's unwanted leadership as world's leading jailer. Renown speakers and musicians will send a strong message to U.S. leaders that this terrible legacy, and its days of legitimacy are over.

Events begin on Friday evening, in and near Washington DC. Emerging details are updated daily on the Internet at www.JourneyForJustice.org.

"We have bad laws, not a nation of bad people, and we are demanding change," says Roberta Franklin, the organizer of the March and director of Family and Friends of People Incarcerated (FMI), a group based in Montgomery, Alabama. Dozens of major groups have signed on. Join us, spread the word, support the effort in every way you can.

In Struggle,
